

Telemarketers skirting the Indiana law call from out of state and often THEIR recorded message has a lock on MY phone line. On many occasions an attempt to terminate the call (i.e. hang up) is unsuccessful. What right do these sollicitors have to do this on my home phone line which I am paying for? I think the Indiana NO CALL list is very good and works most of the time.